ON THE MOVE. Bryn Walker is closing its doors at 515 Cowper St. in downtown Palo Alto and will re-open soon at 212 Homer Ave., so be sure to stop by and check out the new location. They offer comfortable, casual clothing in natural fabrics, and everything is made at their factory in Berkeley. Their knowledgeable sales associates are always happy to offer personal assistance. For more details, call Diane at (650) 322-9983.

CALIFORNIA AVENUE AMPS IT UP. The historical site at 299 California Ave., previously a hair salon, has been split in half and has reopened with the new Calave wine bar on one side and the salon on the other. Lori Romero and husband Dave Villarreal teamed up with James and Becky

Laden to launch the new wine bar. It's the perfect juxtaposition of modern and historic. They offer local and international wines with great craft beers. Their food offerings include truffle popcorn, a variety of artisan peanut butter sandwiches, a great charcuterie plate and more! California Avenue has definitely received an upgrade with Calave! The friendly staff and atmosphere make this place a must visit when you're in Palo Alto. For more details, call (650) 521-0443.

OPEN TABLE RESERVATIONS are now available for Vino Locale in downtown Palo Alto. Why drive to wine country when Vino Locale brings it to you? Located in a charming and historic Victorian house off University Avenue, the restaurant's Chef Andrew creates delicious California cuisine. Everything is prepared with only seasonal, local and organic ingredients. Their shelves are filled with small production wines from the Santa Cruz Mountains and Santa Clara, Alameda and Contra Costa counties and about 80% of the rotating wine list has a local focus. Make reservations today for lunch from 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. or dinner and cheese from 5 to 9 p.m. To find out when you can meet local wine experts, call (650) 328-0450 or visit www.vinolocale.com.

DIRECT FROM ITALY! Eduardo and Mario are owners of Arte Ristorante in the heart of downtown Palo Alto. With true Italian style, they offer ambiance, class, an amazing staff and authentic, homemade pastas. Brunch is served every day and happy bar hours are from 3 to 6 p.m. Arte Ristorante is located at 473 University Ave. Call (650) 329-8300 or go to www.arteristorante.com.
